PRIVATE SCHOOLS, COLLEGES AND ACADEMIES

President Richmond on "The Spiritual Element in Education"

e thing we need to know about a ma-a system, the question of questions, is hat is his philosophy? 'As a mar-nieth in his heart, so is he.' A man i-philosophy of education? Wha call educating a boy? Huxley have we here the whole story? Surel n is morality and the heart of morality is religion. No adequate scheme merals, and no adequate scheme of morals en be dev sed without religion. "We sometimes commit our children, to the hands of men indifferent, making touchstone of efficiency, limiting our vision to a nose length. We call them good teachers because forsooth they can give you in the wink of an eye all the thegive you in the wink of an eye all the thegive you in the wink of an eye all the thegive at Riverdale Country School, give at Riverdale Country School, Riverdale-on-Hudson, two recitais for violin and piano on Tueslay, March 31, and Tuesday, April 21. Mr. and Mis

31, and Tuesday, April 21. Mr. and Mis
32 look into his eyes and see something 33 the soul of the man. No man can
34 of the soul of the man. No man can
35 of the soul of the man. No man can
36 of the soul of the man. No man can
37 of the soul of the man. No man can
38 of the soul of the man. No man can
39 of the soul of the man. No man can
30 of the soul of the man. No man can
31 of the soul of the man. No man can
32 of the soul of the man. No man can
33 of the soul of the man. No man can
34 of the soul of the man. No man can
35 of the soul of the man. No man can
36 of the soul of the man. No man can
37 of the soul of the man. No man can
38 of the soul of the man. No man can
39 of the soul of the man. No man can
30 of the soul of the man. No man can
30 of the soul of the man. No man can
31 of the soul of the man. No man can
32 of the soul of the man. No man can
39 of the soul of the man. No man can
30 of the soul of the man. No man can
30 of the soul of the man. No man can
30 of the soul of the man. No man can
31 of the soul of the man. No man can 32 of the soul of the man. good teacher unless he is in a deep d teacher unless he is in a deep sense a religious man; and we ous wrong to ourselves and to March the new council. This body consists Won and two lost.

The boys on Friday last elected for March the new council. This body consists

THE ELMS, SPRINGFIELD, MASS. The boys on Filday last elected for our childen to entrust them to any other. Scared by the talk of narrow minded religionists and bewildered by a half baked theory of State policy, which persists in the ideas of the bys and who assume religion, we have even shut the doors of our schools against all religion, and the good teacher, and the filling in the coat room with his goods and his outer garments. The English Bible, chief jewel in the crown of our literature and precious birth-right of every English speaking child, is excluded—shall we say religious?—from our schools. The water of life may flow, but it must be taken outside school hours and in sanitary drinking cups. Straige Christianity, strange Judaism. If you please, and stranger educational policy, not the least either of our national dangers, for is this not also a sowling to the flesh and shall we not of the flesh rape corruption? Ground for this bedre to first any the reading the face or for his schooling, he nevertheless face for his described to the face or for his schooling, he nevertheless made an inspira
The boys on friday last elected for the school of the purples chosen monthly from the school the flesh rape of the present and who assume religions and who assume religions to five members of the functional were chosen. The face flowing the ideas of the bys and who assume religion to five members chosen monthly from the school represent the faculty from the school represent before the faculty from the school represent the faculty from the school represent before the faculty from the school represent and friends of the oping exercises, at which an influence of the pupils were chosen: Charles Hoff.

Jack Bertschmann, Gregory Camp, Dar
Jack Bertschmann, Gr ase, and stranger educational not the least either of our na-angers, for is this not also a sow-the flesh and shall we not of the ap corruption? Ground for this a not wanting. We are gathering rvest in a generation that has without spiritual backgrounds, he mainspring of duty, make no Certainly the training of the ad religious life is the very root after; without it there is neither permanence of all knowledge cack upon the eternity and unity spirit in whom are hid all the sof wisdom and knowledge.

wiedge is a landscape pleasantly brook, field and forest. grasses, ows, clusters of blessoms, jewelled lakes, hill slopes sweeping upbehind them all, the mountains of unchanging truth—but back the sky, the encompassing spirit ymbols of unchanging truth—but back f all the sky, the encompassing spirit f the Eternal. Nothing has value, nothing can have value without it. The sky sonly the infinite depths of the air brough which the light comes filtering of leveal to us form and color, and ver all the world of knowledge there is a atmosphere, a sky, which is the pallicating essence of the Eternal. Spirit, brough which comes sifting the light hat 'never was on sea or land,' shining from the glory inefable and revealing to severything the mind sees or the heart in popular education nor se-popular government. The back-teaching must always be the i of the presence of God waiting of of every mind. The solidating permanence of all knowledge

The address delivered by Central of Linou College, and dimner given for the label delivered per control of the college of the cellence in a smoothly running machine. We feel like patting our motor car after it has brought us back from our hundred nile ride without missing a revolution. So the arts and sciences share each other's properties and have all things in common. call educating a boy? Huxley education? What call educating a boy? Huxley education learning the rules of this closeness we have not escaped strife. We have our family quarrels—this comment of this closeness we have not escaped strife. We have our family quarrels—this entire whole story? Surel on is more than the training of this closeness we have not escaped strife. We have our family quarrels—this entire whole story? Surel on is more than the training of this closeness we have not escaped strife. We have our family quarrels—this entered the whole story? Surel on is more than the training of this closeness we have not escaped strife. We have our family quarrels—this entered the whole story? Surel on the color of this closeness we have not escaped strife. We have our family quarrels—this entered the whole story? Surel on the color of this closeness we have not escaped strife. We have our family quarrels—this entertwish men that his sentiment must be as true as a chemical reaction, and his spiritual impulses as trife. We have our samples combats, bound in calf, and phalanxes in spectacies and averaging and retreating, cut and thrust, a terrible logomachy waged within and without the wails of chools and colleges, until the curriculum becomes not a running course but a kind within and without the wails of chools and colleges, until the curriculum becomes not a running course but a kind within and without the wails of chools and colleges, until the curriculum becomes not a running course but a kind and the pay smaller. I wonder whether attended to our champions appear like the good Don whom we love and laugh at, with his barber's basin for helmet and his sorry nag Rosinante.

"It is feelly a great and beautiful thing to be a successful teacher, and many of us shift to the highest success because we allow ourselves to shrift and answers to every chivalrual impulses as true as the light rays which travel in a right line. Thus interition in a right line. Thus interition is reputation, and his spiritual impulses as tri being members one of another. By reason of science, those seekers after truth who have shown us both by precept and example the better way. Least of all must we fall to form in our youth a heart of truth. To the sincere mind we must add the single heart that scorns duplicity and answers to every chivalrous thought. His sentiment must be as true as a chemi-

Michael Angelo, whose divine phing wrought itself into all his work to say: 'Art is the imitation of Science, in the highest sense, is moviedge of God—not of his laws but of himself. It will have for take a firm grasp on spiritual life, twill have for take a firm grasp on spiritual life, the wast to send for a large map. Were clearer view the image of the matter with our tion? We answer, shortly, that it a background. A committee organ-for the purpose roams over wide fields. F. and, threshing out their harvest, bring us this pregnant statement question of moral education is the of the modern educational problem, fore method, but more manhood; less and the proper state and self-destructive—like a man making faces at structive—like a man making faces at slow ourselves to shrink to the dimensure of a man, for getting that man was not made for the place of dignity and to receive the honor that belongs to it we shall have to think of priesthood, renouncing the world in its grosser interpretations and

Latest News of the Life

Within Academic Walls

AVID and Clara Mannes are to give at Riverdale Country School, Riverdale-on-Hudson, two recitals for violin and piano on Tuesiay, March 31, and Tuesday, April 21. Mr. and Mis. Mannes are greatly interested in the musical development of the boys and each school of Bridgeport, Conn., on February 21 by the score of 43 to 21. This makes the total score to date of seven games are many two lost.

made hardships for himrelf. He cited Washington's achievements as an inspiration to any boy of good family.

ROSEMARY HALL, GRENWICH, CONN.

On Wednesday afternoon, February 18, there was a basketball match held with the Greenwich High School in the Rosemary gymnasium. The score was 63 to 10 in Rosemary's favor.

The Newark High School team came to Rosemary on Saturday February 21.

Rosemary on Saturday, February 21, to play a basketball game. Rosemary won with a score of 38 to 8.

STAMFORD PREPARATORY SCHOOL.

NATIONAL CATHEDRAL SCHOOL

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 28.—The largest indoor meet of the season in Washington will be the Georgetown meet on Saturday night, March 7. All of the Eastern colleges and most of the schools in this vicinity will be represented. The National Cathedral School's entry list is cally large and consists of Brewer Creation. National Cathedral School's entry list is fairly large and consists of Brewer, Cranford, Coburn, Northrop and Fair in the dashes, Dick Hollyday, Harris. Sternbergh and Friestedt in the middle distances and Carter, King Hollyday and Millard in the mile. Millard will also be in the high jump. In the Richmond meet a week ago the squad tied with Episcopal High for second place. A strenuous attempt will be made to carry off first honors in the Georgetown meet. Cathedral seems to have found a coming star in the shape of Colburn, who played his first basketball game of the season a short time ago. He has all the College of St. Elizabeth, Established in 1899, Is in Flourishing Condition

eligious views of woman's place at engious views of woman's place above on any sphere have not changed to me he demands of modern times and the laieddoscopic revelations with regard recoman's place in the world. Have these leals changed to meet present day rejurements?

The ideals of the sisters still remain the ter deep laid conceptions of life and its elations to right living. She has carried with her into the higher educational derelopment of her own life the lofty pur n her young years, and consecrate her life to the education of the young, or to the service of her fellow men in whatever

The ideals of the sisters still remain the deals of the long ago, for they believe hat those ideals, based upon high moral standards, and founded upon the highest enception of woman's place and woman's luty toward that place, are ideals not apable of change. The progress in educational standards has not entailed upon the religious teacher any deviation from the religious teachers are the religious teachers and the religious teachers are the religious teachers.

Woman's College in New Jersey Preserves the Best Catholic Traditions as Regards Education and Culture

ATHOLIC education has made rapid at the dead of the college for women with the gain in the women. With the gain in the women for the students that conditivities the catholic Church was not slow to take advancement of the rown in this opening movement of the rown in the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first advancement of the rown in this opening movement and the catholic Church was not slow to take advancement of the rown in this opening movement and the catholic college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first advancement of the rown in this opening movement and the catholic college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the catholic college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into existence. Among the first state of the college for women soon sprang into exis which by word and example.

Whether the world, so called, is always willing to admit that the convent grad-of the nuns, so to speak, is equal to that of the secular college. In addition, the Catholic college graduate carries with her nito the world something that the merely secular school graduate cannot boast of. The refined and cultured surroundings of the conventual life, the gentle and womanly manners that are bred wherever young women come in contact with religious teachers, and the air of distinction that is sui generis among convent trained students—all this in addition to the care-professional advancement while still at ul and thorough training in scholastic college. In the school of music degrees type apart and one whom the world aturally looks upon as specially fitted to specialty.

when rare occasions offer to exional propriety, any breach of decorum or any deviation from the accepted code of conventional discipline. It is negative raise, but praise nevertheless, and convent girls the world over feel something In the School of Household Economics conducted by a former superintendent of the Boston Cooking School and who has after which a diploma is given, or the four year course, which entitles the student to the degree in course. The department of home economics at the College of St. Elizabeth is one of the most popular and interest in the work gains daily recruits both among the student body in residence and from the outlying towns near the college. Easy access by rail and troiley makes St. Elizabeth's peculiarly desirable for students living in the Oranges, Newark, Summit, Morristown and Dover, and large, numbers come daily commercial school, and day sel narking the beginning of a superior edu-ational establishment among the historic fills of Morris county. St. Elizabeth's has

Main buildings, College of St. Elizabeth, Convent Station, N. J.

can accomplish. The play covered two by the entire audience. The cast con-sisted of: Claudius, King of Denmark, Lucile Brown: Gertrude, Queen of Den-mark, Angela Morancy; ladies in waiting, Ruth Bergin, Ruth Hagan and Ger-trude McDermott: Hamlet, Elizabeth Young: Ghost of Hamlet's Father, Sara to Hamiet, Ethel Hess: Resenceant; and Guildenstern, Courtiers, Mary Doherty and Annie Putegnat: Osric, Mary E. Campbell; Marcellus and Bernardo, offi-

HORACE MANN SCHOOL

As a result of a recent victory the Horace Mann hockey team is the champion scholastic organization of the city.
Principal Virgil Prettyman and the faculty received the patrons of the new Horace Mann School for Boys at the school on Tuesday, February 24, in order to discuss the new school. school on Tuesday, February 24, in order to discuss the new school. Among those who led in the discussion of the problems confronting the new school were Prof. A. Weeks, Dr. W. T. Gibb, C. D. Hilles, K. Eilers and Dr. Wise.

On Monday, March 2, the French Society will give a play entitled "Chacun Son Metler." The cast is made up of Dorothy Currier, Maxine Harrison and Roland Loiseaux.

WHEATON COLLEGE, NORTON. MASS.

Dr. David Snedden. Commissioner of Education for Massachusetts, was the guest of honor at the faculty dinner on Truursday, February 19. He spoke on "The Proper Curriculum for a Women's College," and entered a plea for the type of education which hears directly. of education which bears directly on modern needs and problems. Dr. Sned-den's address was followed by general

The Washington's Birthday party washeld as usual in the gymnasium. As usual every one wore Colonial dress, and there were many quaint and delightful cortumes. The evening was opened with a Pavlowa gavotte given by eight couples. On the evening of the first day of the second half-year the fam'ly and the day school were Miss Porter's guests at an old fashioned party.

A PAVIOUS gavotte given by eight couples, followed by a grand march and dancing. The last vesper service was conducted by the Rev. De Witte S. Clark of Salem. one of the trustees of the college.

ST. PAUL'S SCHOOL

Paul's boys now in the various colleges have been giving a good account of them-selves to the recent midyear examina-tions. The school follows the work of its graduates in college with a keen in-terest, for one of the best tests of the school's work is the ability of the boys It sends out to "make good," as they themselves would express it, in the work the school has prepared them for. Washington's Birthday was appropriasimple of the boys on Monday. The lower school exercises followed immediately after the regular day's work. The boys had decorated their schoolroom with the Stars and Stripes, flowers and a large picture of Washington. Several papers on the various aspects of Wash. STAMFORD, Conn., Feb. 28.—Judging by the numerous entries received from the many high schools and preparatory schools throughout the State of Connecticut, the coming track meet February 28 promises to be a great success. The entry list now numbers over a hundred and includes some of the best school talent in the East, Melvin Sheppard, the great half mile runner, is to act as starter, and he will also run an exhibition race during the course of themest. A number of the hops took advantage of the Washington Birthday holiday coming on Monday by spending the weekend at their homes.

Frank Speaight, the great English impersonator of Dickene's characters, gave a number of selections from Dickene's more than the same of the session's school entertainments at more time to be selections from Dickene's characters, gave a number of selections from Dickene's actually were to be considered with a large picture of Washington. Several papers on the various aspects of Washington's life were read by the little chaps and then they listened to an address by the head master on "Mothers of Great Men." At its close Mr. Marsh asked the youngsters to turn their backs to the flag and put them through an undertaking when the graduates a few evenings since staged "Hamlet." The season's school entertainments at flag and put them through and history. The regular evening study period was given up for the program which had been prepared in honor of Lincoln and Washington by the hoys of the upper school program and history. The regular evening study period was given up for the program which had been prepared in honor of Lincoln and Washington by the hoys of the upper school program which had been prepared in honor of Lincoln and washington by the hoys of the upper school prepared in honor of Lincoln and washington by the hoys of the upper school program which had been prepared in honor of Lincoln and though an outlet a large picture of Washington by the head master on "Mothers of Unra the fept washington by the head master on "Mothers of Unra

VERMONT ACADEMY.

SAXTON'S RIVER, Vt., Feb. 28 .- Coach controls him is the developing of a catcher. Aside from this position, last year's infield is intact.

The play "Lend Me Five Shillings" is to be produced by the students before the Easter recess.

Campbell: Marcellus and Bernardo, officers, Margaret Morrison and Gertrude in Fuller Hall. The sermon was preached by the Rev. W. F. Meyer of Bennington, vesper services in the evening.

The Vermont Academy Christian Association has been formed with the following officers: President, Paul H. Ballou of Chester, Vt.: secretary, Milford R. Buck of Rowley, Mass.: treasurer, Gaston M. Stephens of New Bedford, Mass.: advisory officer, I. M. Gayman of the faculty.

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE.

Opono Me., Feb. 28 .- Work has begun the new course in the chemistry pulp and paper. The minature nt which will be used to demonplant which will be used to demonstrate the practical work is assembled and is complete in every detail. It is now expected that actual paper will be made some time in March. Registration for the courses has so exceeded expectation that two divisions have been formed. These two divisions will work in conjunction with each other on Fridays and on four days during the semester the conjunction with each other on Fridays and on four days during the semester the work will be carried on through sixteen hours continuously, the divisions alternating in four and eight hour shifts. At first the work will consist of the preparation of the chemicals and later the actual manufacture of paper will be demonstrated.

PRIVATE SCHOOLS throughout the country are invited to this private school page. Address all communications to The School, College and Camp Bureau, New York "San," 170 Nassan street, New York.

INSTRUCTION. BUSINESS COLLEGES-FOR BOTH SEXES. NEW YORK-New York City.

BOOK REPENDENTS OF BOOK REPENDENTS OF BOOK NEW OR STENOTY PY NEW DAY & NIGHT—OPEN ALL YEAR Send for Illustrate l Catalo rue No. 4. Miller School LEXINGTON AV. AT 280 SF. N. Y.

KNICKPIRROCKP R SCHOOL OF SPERTAR IFS 400 Pifth av. N. V. Opp. Public Library. Complete Secretarial course. Special stress on Figlish. D. McCLELLAN SMITH. Director. PRATT School - 62-64 West 45th St Individual Instruction, day, evening shorthand. Bookkeeping, Secre-tarial and Stenotype departments

Walworth Sunlness Institute, Broadway & 72 5 anneranh. Booklespine, Screek ia Course, Cv i Service, Sec Curlouse, DRAKE | Business School, Inc.

INSTRUCTION. DANCING SCHOOLS. NEW YORK-New York City.

MODERN DANCES

G. HEPBURN WILSON, M. R.

APOLIAN HALL. Tel. Bryant 1923.

MAISON-

Select and Refined.

SALON DE DANSE 1630 B'way, at 100th St Phone liverside 8636.

Thé Dansant

Hrthur

FIVE EAST TORTY-FIVE

Wednesd y fiern ons. 4 to 6:30

ADMISSION $1 00

Refreshments Included

, F. Claren ; Rivers

ECOLE de DANSE

Late modern society and stage dances SALON CAN BE ENGAGED.

Compilmentary Lesson on Application. Telephone 1050 Commbus.

AD. NEWBERGER

CASTLE SHALF AN HALF"

ORIGINATOR OF NEW DAN ES

Louise Morgan Studios

2 doors east of Carnegie Hall

Mansfield Studie of Dancing 247 West 42d. Bryant 4674. Select (not a public Dance Hall.) Latest modern dances.
cassonable. Absolute private lessons. Classes imited to ten persons.

FOR BOYS AND YOUNG MEN. NEW YORK-New York City.

All Hallons Institute, Boys, 18 W. 1941 St. Christian Brothers of Ireland.

with Expert Instruction

NEW YORK-New York City.

LANGUAGE-PHONE

LANGUAGES.

FRENCH GERMAN

SPANISH - ITALIAN

THE LANGUAGE PHONE METHOD

FOR GIRLS AND YOUNG WOMEN. MASSACHUSETTS.

"THE FLMS" SCI.001. FOR GIRLS
Spring field, Massachusetts
A city school win country sports. Open air sleeping room, Cerifbeate admits to Vassar, Smith, Wellesley, Mt. Holyole, Slomena, Graduaring and special courses. Demestic Science, Music.

MISCELLANEOUS. NEW YORK-New York City.

The Brown School of Tutoring 241 West 75th St. Phone Col. 8894.

vision, Fifteen teachers each having had at teast 12 years of experience, PERSONAL INTERALEMS WELCOMED "A School with an American Control of Mark."

Private Schools

THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau. This complete service is absolutely free of charge to you. Accurate and unbiased formation given to all nguirers.

This service will prove of valuable assistance in selecting the proper school for placing your trey or

In writing give sufficient details so that intelligent advice can be

SCHOOL - COLLEGE AND CAMP BUREAU

The Sim

170 Nassau St., New York